THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION AD JOURNED UNTIL TUESDAY.

A COMMUTTEE APPOINTED TO REPORT A TICKET-

STIRRING RESOLUTIONS AD PTED. The Republican County Convention met last night, but it was adjourned until next Tuesday night without making any nominations. A committee, consisting of a representative Republican from each Assembly District, to be known as a Committee on Nominations, was appointed.

The convention was called to order about 8:30 o'clock by John Sabine Smith, the chairman of the County Committee. Charles H. Wheelock, of the XXVIIth Assembly District, named Donald Mc-Lean, of the same district, as temporary chairman. His election was unanimous. On taking the chair Mr. McLean said that the time had now come for the Republicans of the State to defeat the criminal whom the Democrats had nominated for the highest bench in the State.

"We will do it." he added, "if we nominate here as good a ticket as was named by the Republicans at Syrncuse."

These sentiments were received with enthusiastic applause. The roll-call showed few absentees, ex-cept in the delegation from the XXIst Assembly District, which had only about one-third of its entire number present, William H. Hellamy and Richard Van Cott were elected temporary secre-RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

SHEEHAN'S FRIEND TURNED DOWN. BUFFALO REPUBLICANS REFUSE TO RENGMI-NATE ASSEMBLYMAN GALLAGHER.

Buffalo, Oct. 11 (Special).-The Republicans of this city and county had six Assembly District conventions to-day, and there was marked har-mony everywhere. The only contest was in the IVth Assembly District, and there it was a friendly one. George B. Munn, Charles J. North and Joseph P. Whittet were candidates for Assemblyman Edward Gallagher's place, and it took four ballots to decide the contest. Mr. Whittet won. In the other districts these men were nominated unani-mously: 1st District, Jules O'Brien; 11d, Simon Selbert; Hid, Charles H. Brown; Vth, Philip Gerst;

Vith Charles Schoepflin.

Assemblyman Gallagher, who last year repre-sented the only sure Republican district in the city made himself very unpopular by advocating in the last Legislature various measures which posed by Ruffalo people generally, but which were favored by Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan. At the party caucus last night Republicans of all shades united against Gallagher, who was seeking renomiparty caucas ast callagher, who was seeking renomination for a vindication. "Boss" Sheehan was anxious to have him renominated, and was said to be aiding his canvass in various ways, but the Republicans repudiated Gallagher and Sheehan's Interference in his behalf. In the convention to-day he had not a single vote.

This afternoon Mr. Gallagher, in "The Times," which is "Boss" Sheehan's personal organ, announces himself as an independent candidate for re-election. He has already been indorsed by the Central Labor Union, which Sheehan dominates. The Democratic boss hopes, by indorsing Gallagher as the Democratic nominee, to defeat the regular Republican candidate, but the voters of the district are thoroughly awake to the scheme and will defeat it by a large vote. The Republican City Convention held to-day was a splendin gathering. It was entirely harmonious. Frank C. Laughlin, brother of ex-Senator John Laughlin, was nominated for Corporation Counsel, Nicholas J. Mack for Assessor and Christian Klinck, John I. Byrne and James Ash for Councilmen.

BOLTING A BOSS'S NOMINATIONS.

Buffalo, Oct. 11 (Special) .- "The Buffalo Courier," organ of the Cleveland Democrats, which last Saturday morning bolted the nomination of Judge Maycomes out to-day against the candidates for the Assembly which Boss Sneehan put in the field yesterday. In the Assembly and Senatorial contests here will centre the battle resulting from last winter's flagrant assaults on the Buffalo charter.

The Courier' says:

If this were merely a party issue, assuredly the Democrats of Buffalo should have manifness and self-respect sufficient to find the ways and means effectively to rebuke the insult thrown into the face of their Democratic Mayor by desperate ringsters. Surely there must be enough Democrats in Buffalo to avenge the dastardly assault upon the principles and the good name of their party. But the issue is beyond and above party. It involves the dearest rights of citizenship. It appeals to all men stitutions and the legitimate aims of government. To this community it is a vital issue. It is farreaching. It affects the material as well as the moral welfare of the city.

The ring has made a mockery of local self-government; and the issue is not only the restoration of local self-government, but it is also a question of local self-protection. If local self-government is worth having, if popular rights are worth having, if the honest administration of city affairs is worth having, they are worth fighting for.

After considering the men put forward by Sheehan, "The Courier" says:

Who among the candidates yesterday nominated for the Assembly will make the sort of fight demanded by the crisis that confronts the city? To ask the question is to answer it.

Mr. Morris later made a short speech.

FOUNDER BRADLEY ACCEPTS.

Asbury Park, N. J., Oct. 11 (Special).-The joint committees of the Republican party and the Citiens' League who were appointed at the conven-tions held in Freehold Monday last to inform Founder James A. Bradley of his nomination for State Senator returned to Freehold this evening with the announcement of his acceptance of the proffered trust, and he has assured both committees that he will at once enter upon the work of a vigorous campaign. Twenty-one clergymen have already pledged themselves to stump the county for Mr. Bradley and to keep at it regardless of other engagements until the close of the polls. A number of the most prominent anti-racetrack Democrats in the county expect to stump the county, and from now on until Election Day it is proposed to make it lively for Henry S. Terhune, the nominee of the Democrats, and the avowed champion of

It is understood that Senator Hill means to try his hand at vindicating Maynard in two or three speeches, which he will make in different parts of the State. The labor of the machine is to be concentrated upon Maynard, and every means in the hands of the bosses will be used to save him from defeat. Among the expedients suggested yesterday was tenant-Governor, to get some kind of an indorse ment of Maynard from Mr. Cleveland. The letter which the "combine" hopes to secure from the President is not expected to be an approval of May-nard's theft of the Dutchess County election re-turns, but simply a laudation of his alleged per-sonal character, steering clear of his infamous record.

HARLEM REPUBLICAN CLUBS UNITE. Two of the largest Republican clubs in the XXVIIIth Assembly District united on Tuesday night for the purpose of acting in harmony and presenting a better front to the enemy. They are the John T. McNeill Association and the Independence Club. The action was taken voluntarily on the part of the former club to further the interests of the party in the campaign. Following the nomination of the Constitutional delegates, Dr. Gorton appeared before the convention and respectfully refused to accept the nomination for Senator and become a sacrifice on the political altar for the benefit of Democracy. THE NATION'S SAFETY THREATENED. EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON DENOUNCES THE AT-TEMPT TO REPEAL THE FEDERAL ELECTION LAWS.

Chleago, Oct. 11 .- Ex-President Harrison arrived in the city last evening to attend the meeting of the Loyal Legion. Speaking of the repeal by the House of Representatives of the Federal Election laws, General Harrison said: "We are sowing the seed of discord in breaking away from the National laws. The people of this country will not submit to choice of their officials by the dicebox or the juggler's hat. Above all, we must have pure elections. In my messages to Congress I said nearly all that could be said upon this necessity. Our elections must be above suspicion of taint or fraud. Citizens will not respect officials whose election is questioned or known to have been secured by palpable or open fraud.

"I believe that every citizen should be protected scheme, said to have originated with the Lieu- in his right of suffrage, to the extent of being permitted to vote his political preference and to have Election law is repealed by Congress, all Federal control and supervision of the election of National officers is withdrawn, and local sentiment and local laws will govern such elections. I am not partial to any particular Federal Election law, except that the law should provide for some judicial method of inquiry.
"That the colored vote in the South is so pressed or counted out is a notorious fact, Take, for instance, the State of Tennessee. Had I refor instance, the State of Tennessee, Had I received as many votes in the five black counties in West Tennessee in 1885 as Mr. Blaine received in the same counties in 1885, I would have secured the electoral vote of Tennessee by a majority of 5,000 or 6,000. The frauds in that section were so the election officers indicted before the Federal Court at Memphis. In honest election lies our National safety, and we cannot tolerate fraud in elections without paying a bitter price in the end."

INSPECTORS GROSSLY SHIRK DUTY. GLARING INSTANCE CHARGED-WHAT THE ELECTION'S EUREAU SAYS.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: According to to-day's issue of your paper. It is the law that "on each day of registration the polling places will be open from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m., and the inspectors are required to be in at-

I was in the barber shop this morning from 8 to $.30, No. 1,595 Avenue A, where the voters of the Fifteenth Election District of the XXIVth Assembly District are required to register. During that time two men come in to register, one at 8:25 and the other at 8:30, and they were both told by the inspectors that they could not register then, that if they would come back in "half an hour"

I should like to have you state whether or not these men, desiring to register, had the right to insist that the inspectors should take their names at once, or whether the inspectors were justified in Queens County yesterday afternoon nominated for sending away any and all who wanted to register Member of Assembly James S. Fairbrother, of until they, the inspectors, were good and ready to until they, the inspectors, were good and ready to begin their duties. It may not have made any difference to these two men who desired to register, but you can easily imagine that it would make quite a difference to one who, for instance, might quite a difference to one who, for instance, might want to leave town, and would not be able to return until too late to register on any other of the regularly appointed days. Then again, it might be, that, either from sickness or inability to "comeback in half an hour," or any other time, these men would be unable to register, and so, through no fault of theirs, be disfranchised.

Will you kindly state the rights of citizens desiring to register under the above circumstances? REGULAR REPUBLICAN READER.

New-York, Oct. 19.

Inquiry at the Bureau of Elections yesterday brought out the fact that the inspectors had been guilty of a gross neglect of duty. "The inspectors were clearly wrong in sending these voters out of the office and in telling them to return at a later time," said Chief Clerk Allen, who has charge of the bureau in the absence of General Rodenbough. "It frequently happens in the first few minutes of the first registration day that a slight delay will tion of the books, and so forth. In cases where a voter presents himself for registration, and the books are not ready, the inspector may administer the oath, put the necessary formal questions, inscribe the answers on a piece of paper, and, having passed the voter, afterward transfer his name to the books.

The law admits of this provision, in order that the time of the man intending to vote spector send a voter away from the office. If the matter is brought to the attention of the W disgraceful proceedings between Geveland and Hill assure you that we shall institute a rigid in-bemocrats at Jamestown, the same men who had a vestigation into the circumstances."

According to Niner, McNichol assaulted him while in the discharge of his duties at the registration booth, No. 700 Tenth-ave. Tuesday evening the three inspectors took turns in going home to supper. When Niner returned, said that he found McNichol in his chair, with is legs on the table across Niner's books, Niner aid he proceeded to drag the books from unde McNichol's legs. Then, he alleged, McNichol used ile language and hit him on the forehead. Niner said that he ran out to look for Policeman Schoonhofer, supposed to be on duty at the booth, and that McNichol then assaulted him again.

When the case came up again before Justice Burke, he dismissed the complaint without asking the accused a single question. He advised Niner to get some witnesses of the assault. When Mc-Nichol was questioned by the reporter he said that he had simply defended himself from the attack of Niner and his brother-in-raw, Isidor
